Cross-Rhodes
913 Chicago Ave.
Evanston, IL 60202
847-475-4475

A local favorite in south Evanston, Cross-Rhodes boasts a menu of very reasonably priced, expertly prepared Greek delicacies in a bright, airy and family-friendly setting. On most days, you may be seated by the owner, who grins and tells you, "Sit anywhere." Later in the evening, this can be more difficult, as the crowd waiting to be seated grows. It's worth the wait, though, so be sure to queue up for a full gyros dinner, moussaka, lemon rice soup or a side of their heavenly fries (topped with vinegar and herbs). And if you want the taste of gyros without the guilt, order any one of the fresh salads on the menu; for a nominal price, you can request "gyros slices on top." More conservative tastes are welcome as well; check the menu for kid-style standards like burgers and hot dogs. To wash it all down, choose from a list of imported and domestic wines and beers, as well as sodas and iced tea. While sit-down dining traffic is usually brisk, their take-out service is also popular and offers a great alternative to the more typical (and tired) options of pizza, burgers and fries. -- Kay Peterson
