When you step into this beautifully restored 1926 home, you know you're in for something special. This intimate, friendly shop offers attentive service, a beautiful and bride-worthy ambiance and amazing bargains. All dresses are sample gowns from other shops, either of a discontinued line or previously worn, and thus discounted 30 to 70 percent. But nothing about the shop feels "bargain basement." Warm, beautiful and cozy, the Victorian cottage that houses the store offers a plush setting to prepare you for your big day. The roomy bedrooms upstairs serve as dressing rooms, and the parlor below offers a beautiful locale for modeling to friends and family. The staff is equally delightful with plenty of assistance and advice. Located a bit off the beaten path in suburban Barrington, this bridal bargain shop is well worth the trip -- but call first for an appointment. And be ready to be decisive, because all purchases are final. -- Kay Peterson
